COME HOME

C O M E
H O M E

Each visit is always like coming home—the warm greeting of a familiar aroma, a delightful taste, and a pleasant sight.

Pancake House first opened its doors to families and friends in 1974. Through cherished memories of the pink and orange booths, old movie posters on the walls, and our famous fluffy pancakes—our little home then has become a wonderful place today for hearty conversations over satisfying home-cooked recipes.

Whichever generation you're from, Pancake House will always have a space ready for you, anytime. To celebrate moments. For making new memories. To savor the comforting warmth of home.
